

Shadow Loves the Body

I am so close to alone.

I can feel it in the wind
between your failure
and my silence.

My dark ocean
flows from your salty tears.
Sad eyes, you are
a deep oasis.

We come together
like life and death.

I am ghost stone,
a hopeless
ember glow,
you my infinite
light.

Grant me
everlasting rest
below your purple
polaris.

North star,
guide me home.

Body, I am
your milky mirror,
your frightened bird
tied to a dying heaven.

I haunt you forever.
